

HOME HAPPENINGS.

October is furnishing ideal days, rare as those in June.

Some fine bass have been caught in the Ellsworth lake during the past two weeks.

A meeting of the village board of education will be held this (Friday) evening.

A large number of dressed hogs have been delivered to local dealers this week.

The residences of Mrs. Nora Harter and Mrs. Sarah Sanzenbacher on East Main street are being painted.

The Altimo Culture Co. has constructed a lake near its plant and stocked same with bass and perch.

A number of Canfield people heard the great Nordica sing at the Park theater in Youngstown Monday night.

There was no school at Leveard Thursday when new seats and desks were placed in the school building.

Good roads all the way from Canfield to Youngstown would mean much to a great many Mahoning county people.

Clay shrouds in Canfield that should be utilized. Why not have it tested and make an effort to secure a new industry?

While playing football at school one day last week Harold Reed had his right collar bone broken and Leland Bardo had an elbow dislocated.

The first football game of the season in Canfield will be played Saturday afternoon between the Normal college eleven and the Girard high school team.

The Dispatch will not use items referring to family quarrels, and matter of that sort out of the publication goes where it belongs—into the waste basket.

A steam heating plant has been placed in the Dispatch office, taking the place of hot air, making it certain that none of that sort of stuff will hereafter get into the paper.

F. F. Lynn called at the Dispatch office the other day and left a fully developed pumpkin that tipped the scales at exactly three ounces. Not much pie timber in a pumpkin of that size.

The first entertainment of the local lecture course will be given in College Chapel next Tuesday night by the Apollo Quintette and Bell Ringers, one of the best musical organizations on the road.

At the public sale, Tuesday afternoon, of the personal property of the late Wm. McCoy, most of the articles offered sold well but old-fashioned furniture and other antiques brought good prices.

There has been a good sale of lecture course tickets but it will be necessary to dispose of more to meet the heavy cost of the five high class entertainments that have been booked. The reserved seat sale started brisk Thursday morning.

Steps have been taken to organize a Board of Trade in Canfield, and already forty business men and citizens have signed their desire to become members. A meeting will be called soon to organize and it is expected a vigorous campaign to secure a new industry or two will be waged as soon as details can be worked out.

The song recital given in the Presbyterian church last Thursday night by Mrs. John G. Simpson of Pittsburgh was one of the most pleasing ever heard in Canfield. Mrs. Simpson possesses a charming voice and she sings the highest class music with an ease that is delightful. Her accompaniment, Mrs. Orla Bohannon, also of Pittsburgh, is a finished performer and her numbers were much enjoyed.

Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

—Philip H. Wetmore of Canfield and Miss Daisy Smith of Coltsville were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Akron, an uncle of the bride, performing the ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the young people. Miss Lottie Smith, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Frank Wetmore, cousin of the groom, was best man. The house decorations were very pretty and the ceremony was performed under a large white floral bell. The gifts to the bride were many and beautiful. After an elaborate wedding supper the happy couple left on a short trip to the east. On their return they will reside in Canfield. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wetmore of this place, and the bride was for several years a teacher in the Canfield schools. Both are very popular and many friends extend congratulations.

COMING AND GOING.

Mrs. J. V. Calvin was in Youngstown Monday.

A. K. Osborn left Monday for Ashland, Ky.

Mrs. A. K. Osborn spent Tuesday with relatives.

Miss Ruth Liddle is suffering from a slight attack of tonsillitis.

R. D. Bush of Greenford was in the village Tuesday morning.

E. S. Golden of North Jackson gave us a business call Monday.

Mrs. W. L. Cook of Green township was in the village Monday.

Wm. Roof and wife of Rosemont spent Wednesday in the village.

T. N. Miller of Austintown was in the village Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Anna Sondecke was home from Youngstown over Sunday.

Clyde Pfau of North Lima visited relatives in the village Sunday.

F. W. Calvin of Green township was in Canfield Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Barbara Obenau and daughter Mary spent Tuesday in Youngstown.

C. E. Noll of Pittsburgh spent a few days here with his family this week.

R. J. Neff went to Cleveland Monday morning on business for the Neff Co.

Master Russell Wise, son of Mrs. Eva Wise, is suffering from scarlet fever.

G. W. Smith, rural mail carrier out of Calla, was in the village Wednesday.

Mrs. L. D. Coy and Mrs. John Sanzenbacher are home from a visit in Pittsburgh.

L. M. Hartman of New York spent Sunday with relatives and friends in this place.

I. T. Rohrer of Beaver township mingled with Canfield acquaintances last Friday.

James Gault of Jackson township gave the Dispatch office a business call Friday afternoon.

Mrs. W. W. Wirt and son Myron of North Lima visited relatives here Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hallett and children of Atwater visited here this week with W. J. Sutton and family.

William Shira and wife and Miss Elma Lower of Milton visited Mrs. Joseph Schaeffer Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Fowler and little daughter Ruth Edna are spending a few days with relatives in Youngstown.

Mrs. Nora Harter and Mrs. Chas. Harter and daughter visited relatives in Youngstown this week.

Mrs. Millie Kimley of Cleveland is here visiting her son Harry and daughter, Mrs. Scott Blackburn.

Mrs. Charity Raub and daughter of New Middletown visited her Monday with Mrs. Catherine Minard.

Mrs. Nancy Liddle of Poland and Mrs. Bassett of Pittsburgh spent Thursday with M. H. Liddle and family.

Mrs. W. S. Anderson and daughters Blanche and Anna of Youngstown spent Tuesday afternoon in the village.

Mrs. Laura Fogg and daughter, Mrs. A. K. Osborn, attended the funeral of Mrs. Reeves in Youngstown Saturday.

Joseph Holmstrom and wife of Beaver township visited in the village Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brown.

Mrs. Carrie Pothour of Youngstown and Mr. Clark Bear of Calla spent Thursday here with Mrs. H. H. Kriner.

Mrs. Emma Johnston on Monday concluded a visit here with her mother and sister and returned home to Cleveland.

Mrs. T. J. White and son Leon and Mr. Barber and wife of Salem spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. John Rice.

Stratton Johnston of Buffalo, N. Y., spent Sunday here with his aged mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston, and other relatives.

E. D. Warner of Lebanon, for many years brakeman on the Niles & Lebanon railroad, spent Tuesday with friends in this place.

Mrs. Belle Hoyle of Ravenna visited here last Friday and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Martha Fowler and Mrs. Albert Bradley.

Mrs. S. A. Mohrman and daughter Maude moved from Perkins to their new home on North Heights avenue in Youngstown.

Mrs. Fremont Cover of Poland and her mother, Mrs. Marshall, of Chicago were guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Rowe one day last week.

James Smith on Sunday concluded a visit of several days here with his daughter, Miss Myra Smith, and returned home to New Springfield.

J. B. Park of Salem, for years engaged in the newspaper business in that city, visited here last Saturday with Prof. E. E. Zimmerman and wife and favored the Dispatch with a call.

J. A. Kline of this township and S. B. Brooks of Ellsworth are home from a hunting expedition in Canada. Each killed a fine moose and they will have the heads mounted to remind them of the hunt.

Mrs. Elsie Church was in Youngstown Monday to see her son-in-law, John E. McConnell, who was badly injured in a street car accident at Cleveland three weeks since. Mr. McConnell's recovery is now assured.

John G. Simpson of Pittsburgh favored the Dispatch with a call while in the village last Friday. Mr. Simpson is receiver for the Groettinger carpet and furniture house and calls attention to some of the bargains offered in today's Dispatch.

Church Chimes.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. S. Lyne, northeast of the village.

Methodist Church—Services next Sunday morning and evening. The report of the various enterprises at the fair will be given and special music at the evening service. Mrs. E. J. Neff will lead the Epworth League at 6 p. m. Plans are being made to occupy the basement of the new church in the near future.

A pain prescription is printed upon each 25c box of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Ask your doctor or druggist if this formula is not complete. Head pains, womanly pains, pains anywhere get instant relief from a Pink Pain Tablet. F. A. Morris, Canfield.